

State of New Jersey

Application for Employment

"People at work for better government through competence, caring, and commitment."

Job applicants are considered for all positions without regard to race, creed, color, national origin, sex, affectional or sexual orientation, age, religion, marital, or veterans status, or disability. The State will not tolerate any form of discrimination or sexual harassment.

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 prohibits employers from discriminating against any qualified person on the basis of a disability. The State of New Jersey makes reasonable accommodations during all aspects of the employment process, such as testing and interviews. The State also makes reasonable accommodations in the work environment to enable a person with a disability to perform the essential job functions and to participate equally with co-workers without disabilities. However, the State can only make reasonable accommodations when it is aware of a disability. It is up to you to inform the prospective employer if you need a reasonable accommodation. The employer may ask you for documentation to support your request for a reasonable accommodation. If you need a reasonable accommodation before the interview process begins, please inform the agency personnel office for which you are applying.

The State of New Jersey is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
